CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Joseph Cannon, a well-known resident of the Navy-Yard, died at his residence on Eighth street last night of paralysis.
 Fanny Dorsey pleaded guilty to stealing a white shirt, valued at fifteen cents, in the Police Court this morning, and was fined $1.

-Decrees of divorce were yesterday granted Mary J. James from William M. James, and William H. Cumpton from Maggie Cumpton.

-Francis R. Fava delivered the first of a series of public lectures last night at Columbian University. He spoke on "Sanitary Engineering."

-The borrer of hardie No. 90 became

The horse of herdic No. 90 became ghtened last evening and ran away. The nicle was badly smashed against a tree Ninth and H streets.

-"You can go down for thirty days," said His Honor to Heary Scribner in the Police Court this morning. He was arrested on Vermont avenue for vagrancy.

-Mrs. M. J. Murray was standing on Seventh street last night when a negro boy snatched her pocket-book, containing $30 and two valuable diamonds. The boy escaped with his booty.

-At the regular meeting of the Woman's

—At the regular meeting of the Woman's National Press Association, to be held at Willard's to-morrow evening, Miss Carrie Harrison will read an assay on Faust, and Professor Murray will have charge of the stereonticon.

-"You keep a house where all the poor creatures in town can go and spend their money in drink," said Judge Miller in the Police Court to Anna Dorsey. "You can give a bond for aixty days, or go down, and the old woman can have thirty."

-Messrs. Burke and Green, counsel for Rosa Meade, have entered suit against the Richmond and Danville Railroad for $30,000 damages. Last June the little girl, who is but 8 years old, slipped down an embankment of cinders and was struck and severely injured by a passing train.

-A delegation of prominent citizens of Washington and Alexandria called on Secretary Proctor yesterday in regard to the Mount Vernon avenue project. Secretary Proctor is heartily in accord with the idea and has already instructed Colonel Hains to take charge of the survey in accordance with the recent act of Congress.

-Mr. Frederick J. Mueller of the Sixth

—Mr. Frederick J. Mueller of the Sixth Auditor's office died last evening at his home on I street of scarlet fever. Mr. Mueller was appointed from Alabama, and has been in the Government service two years. He was well known in the social world during the past winter and was a general favorite. The remains will be taken to his home in Alabama to-morrow.

—A patch of wool about three by four inches was knocked from the cranium of Will Harris, a colored youth, last night. He says it was John Davis, and John Davis says it was the pump-handle he fell against while he was drunk and scrambling for a knife. Judge Miller decided that it was a brick in the hands of a dusky assailant, and inflicted a fine of $5 on Davis.

Damages Given for Injuries. Naucy White invested five cents in the box of a Herdic coach on February 18, 1886, box of a Herdic coach on February 18, 1886, and this morning realized $1,000 on the investment by a sealed verdict rendered by the jury in Chief Justice Bingham's court against the Herdic Photon Company. While she had her foot on the step the driver started the coach and threw her to the pavement, hurting her spine and injuring her for life. She was then about 58 years old. William Stone Abert and James Grier appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs. Epoch Totten and E. B. Hay for the defendant.

His Fifteenth Appearance You are charged with being an habitual drunkard. This is at least fifteen times you have been up here and have been exyou have been up here and have been ex-cused a dozon times. I think you are ut-terly incapable of taking care of yourself."
The man to whom these words were ad-dressed, this morning, in the Police Court, was respectably dressed, with a red face and a long mustache. His name was Allen, and he is well known about the gut-ters and stations of Washington. He pleaded hard to be allowed to leave town, but Judge Miller knew him of old. "Thirty days," he said.

Battle of Shiloh.

As this is the last week of the Battle of Shiloh prior to its departure to Chicago, it should be visited by all who have not yet seen the cyclorams of a battle, which is, as General Grant says, "the hardest fought field battle of the late war." The manage-ment has also retained for this week Uffner's Royal Midgets. Remember Sunday, March 23, is positively the last day. Admission, 25 cents.

The Evidence Insufficient.

Manhattan Club, at 1002 Twentieth street. He was in the Police Court this morning, charged with selling liquors without a license. But one witness, who was not a member, testified to purchasing liquors at the place, and Mr. Shillington said that he could not ask for a conviction on his testimony alone. The case was dismissed.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Southing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colle, and it is the best remedy for diarrhess. 25c. a bottle.

Wish to Escape Jury Service. Judge Montgomery this morning accepted Samuel Lloyd to serve on the jury in the Criminal Court instead of Samuel R. Wheeler, excused. Three names had been drawn, Samuel Keatley, Charles Shields and Samuel Lloyd, and the usual desire to be excused was manifested by all of them.

When Doctors Disagree, Etc. "One man says he has the strong halt nother says he hasn't, one says he is fit to another says he hasn't, one says he is fit to work and another says he isn't. This is one of a number of cases that have been before me, and I want to know if the affection really incapacitates a horse." This is what Judge Miller said this morning, after hearing the testimony in the case of Agent Key of the Humane Society against John Lord. "When a competent authority is brought before me who will define the disease, I can decide upon the cases and not before."

A New Baptist Church. The corner-stone of the new Baptist Church at Sixteenth and O streets is being laid this afternoon, the ceremonies being conducted by Rev. Dr. Stakely. The church conducted by Rev. Dr. Stakely. The church will be of stone, capped by a massive square tower 135 feet high. It will have a seating capacity of about 1,500. Its entire cost, including the site, will be in the neighborhood of $100,000. An offer of $40,000 has been made for the old church on Thirteenth street, between G and H streets. The membership of the church is 300, including a large number of the cultured men of the city.
